Synopsis:

Eric Jackier was a failed business leader who made every misstep that could be made. At the height of his despair he started a three year journey analyzing his mistakes and understanding the keys to success. This began an amazing journey to leadership excellence that is shared within these pages. Told with humor and honesty, The Crystal-Clear Leader is an essential component of the Eric Jackier Leadership and Productivity System and inspires readers to become the best business leaders they can be. Whether you're an entrepreneur or CEO, the skills and principles contained within this book will allow you to build, improve, or scale your business to heights you've never imagined.
